2017 MAMORU AND AIKO TAKITANI FOUNDATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM INFORMATION

All applications must be received at the Foundation by Thursday, February 09, 2017 (not a postmark deadline)

Dear High School Senior Class Advisor/College Counselor:

The Mamoru and Aiko Takitani Foundation, Inc., is pleased to announce that application materials for its 2017 scholarship program are ready for distribution to interested students. Pertinent scholarship information for you and an electronic application for students can be found on this website.

Kindly make this scholarship information available to all seniors through posted announcements, bulletins, newsletters or by other means. You may print copies of the application for students who do not have access to the electronic application.

Please review the counselor section on our website for instructions on selecting a candidate from your school as outlined in the General Information and Procedures, and refer to the Counselor's Checklist for a list of all documents required from school officials that must accompany your student's application. Recommendations from school faculty and community members should be sent directly to your office and added to their application materials.

The deadline for students to submit completed application materials to you is Wednesday, February 1, 2017.

The counselor deadline for schools to submit complete application materials to the Foundation is Thursday, February 09, 2017. All application materials must be received at the Foundation by this date in order to be considered.

The required Principal/Headmaster Verification Form can only be obtained by you or your principal. Please email the Foundation at info@takitanifoundation.org from your official school email address to request a form. Please do not duplicate this document. Each school must request its own verification form.

Thank you for observing all application deadlines to ensure that scholarship opportunities for deserving students are not jeopardized. We are delighted to offer this scholarship opportunity and sincerely thank you for your steadfast support of our scholarship program.

Sincerely,

The Mamoru and Aiko Takitani Foundation Scholarship Committee
